City Council Special Meeting
Minutes
April 11, 2012

Meeting was called to order at 6:30.
All council Members present.

City board and fire station board discussed the fire station lease. They agreed with the lease and the Council asked them if they would like to have another special meeting to do the signing and they said that they will sign at the next regular board meeting in March. ?

Fire board approached the city with an agreement they wanted the city to sign for their fire group not regarding the station. After the council looked over they need more time to look into the legality for the city's part and check it out deeper with the city attorney. Council will readdress it at next regular meeting.
