Civilian observers may occasionally accompany law enforcement officers while on patrol in order to observe and learn about law enforcement procedures and practices. Civilian observers are to be authorized by the Chief of Police or designee. PROCEDURES:

Authorization Process- Ride Along:

Any person or group wishing to participate in this program is referred to the Chief of Police or designee for processing of a "Ride Along Program Application" and a "Ride Along Program Release of Liability Form." Both the application and form are processed, and based on information developed. The applicants are notified as to whether or not they are qualified to participate. In most situations, law-abiding citizens wishing to participate and who have completed all necessary requirements are granted that opportunity. Convicted felons or suspects in criminal activity are not allowed to participate. A criminal background check is performed on all applicants to verify criminal record.

Civilian Rules- Ride Along:

If the civilian is approved to ride along with an officer, they are responsible for following the rules and regulations of the program to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience. The civilian rider:

1. Only rides with officers approved by the Chief of Police;
2. Is not allowed to exit the police vehicle, at any time, to assist the officer on a call, except in officer down situations;
3. Never carries a firearm or any other weapon while on a ride along, unless they are a law enforcement officer or have a concealed carry license.
